

Global Youth Service Day

Sample Social Media Messages

Use social media to spread the word and recruit supporters for your GYSD Project! Write your own messages, or share messages directly from the official Global Youth Service Day pages. We've included a few sample messages to help you get started.

Facebook Find GYSD on Facebook: www.facebook.com/youthservice (@Youth Service).

1. So excited to kick-off our Global Youth Service Day projects! We are (fill in how project is addressing community issue).
2. Did you know Global Youth Service Day is the largest service event in the world and the only one that celebrates the amazing work young people are doing to improve communities? Get involved: <http://gysd.org>
3. Our Global Youth Service Day project is addressing (fill in issue).
4. Global Youth Service Day is around the corner! We are celebrating youth service with our (fill in project celebration activity).
5. Will you join me to [insert project description] on Global Youth Service Day, April [X]? I'm recruiting my friends to help!
6. [X] of teens are getting together to plan Global Youth Service Day projects in [town]!
7. How are you going to serve during GYSD? Share your story in the comments and encourage your friends to join you April 26-28, 2013! www.gysd.org
8. Know someone who wants to change the world? It's never too early to get started with service, so let your friends know about Global Youth Service Day by sending them to our website: www.gysd.org
9. Want to participate in GYSD but need an idea? Check out some of these awesome project ideas: <http://www.gysd.org/ideas>

Twitter Follow GYSD Twitter: @YouthService

Join the conversation with hashtags: #GYSD #YouthPower #YouthChangingtheWorld

1. Looking for kids in [Hashtag city] to join in volunteer projects for #GYSD, April [X].
2. I'm making a difference by serving on #GYSD.
3. #YouthPower can change the world. #GYSD
4. #GYSD 2013 is right around the corner! Have you started planning your project yet? www.gysd.org
5. Know someone who wants to change the world but may not have heard of #GYSD? Get them involved w/ service. www.gysd.org
6. Follow @YouthService for the latest #GYSD info! April 26-28 is right around the corner!
7. Plans for #GYSD? There are tons of ways to serve. Visit your local food pantry or donate clothes. Visit www.gysd.org for more ideas
8. Millions of kids. 100 countries. 6 continents. 50 States. The world changes on Global Youth Service Day. #GYSD www.gysd.org
9. Put yourself on the map...the Global Youth Service Day Map! Register, view, and join up with projects worldwide at <http://gysd.org/map> #GYSD